Make provision with respect to Constables of the Royal Irish Constabulary and Dublin Metropolitan Police who are Reservists or join the Naval or Military Forces. A.D. 1914.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1.—(1) Where a constable of the Royal Irish Constabulary or Dublin Metropolitan Police has, in pursuance of a Royal proclamation, been called into actual service as a member of any Royal Naval Reserve force, or been called out for permanent service as a member of the Army Reserve, on his return to the police force his subsequent pay in that force, and any pension, allowance, or gratuity granted after his return to him or his dependents under the Acts relating to that force, may, if the Lord Lieutenant so directs, be calculated in like manner as if his service under the proclamation had been service in the police force.

Naval or military service of Irish Police Reservists.

- 10 (2) The provisions of the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act, 1883, with respect to constables of the Royal Irish Constabulary and Dublin Metropolitan Police who belong to the Army Reserve shall extend to constables of those police forces who belong to any Royal Naval Reserve force, with the substitution of "required for training or called into actual service" for "called out for training or for permanent service."

- 20 (3) His Majesty may, by Order in Council, extend to constables of the Royal Irish Constabulary or Dublin Metropolitan Police all or any of the provisions of the Police

[Bill 402]
